„I have great memories there, of course. Winning there in 2014 together, of course. It was very very special for me to win my home Grand Prix. It's great that it's back on the calendar.“

„The trick for us is that there are circuits we don't have data for, so we haven't been there with for example 2015 tires. We're a lot more reliant on simulation. Perhaps you didn't come into the simulator as you do normally, make sure we start with a good baseline to work from because it will be different from the last time we have been there. The cars changed fairly radically. It's two steps in the evolution of car.“

„In terms of characteristics what's your favourite part of the track?“

„My favourite part is the hairpin. Because it's after a long straight and in fact actually Hockenheim, 3/4ths of the track is at full-throttle. So there's a lot of straights where you are going flat out and into that hairpin there, hopefully I won't have any overtaking to do but in the case that there is some overtaking to do that is the place to do it. And it's really a place where you are going to see a lot of overtaking. Especially with DRS and everything it'll be great.“

„But maybe what people don't realize is that the track is also evolving year on year. The track in Hockenheim now, 2 years that has had weather affecting it, other cars running on it. We don't know how that has changed the track at the moment and when we get there it'll be quite an interesting piece of information to find out straight away.“

„For my part I'm gonna go with my instincts; trust them. And just fully focus and I am sure the work together is going to work out as a result.“

„For me this is the other aspect of things. Mercedes is there, the star is on top of the building when you look up in the morning that's what you see. It is the home of Mercedes-Benz and it's a great feeling going back there, winning there.“

„Please keep your fingers crossed for me so I can win again at home.“
