

International Highlight ADAC GT Masters – Oschersleben, April 26th – 28th 2019

Rundown

00:00 - 00:03

Intro

00:03 – 00:30

Welcome to Oschersleben, welcome to the start of the season of the ADAC GT Masters 2019. The league of super sports cars enters its 13th season featuring 31 GT cars from 8 manufacturers and 62 drivers. The Magdeburger Börde is also the starting venue for the ADAC Formula 4 and ADAC TCR Germany partner series. The debut of the brand new ADAC GT4 is also eagerly awaited.

00:30 – 00:38

Timo Bernhard (Teamchef KÜS Team75 Bernhard) :

"I think this is the right starter series for the fresh new talents who dream of the GT Masters."

00:38 – 00:43

In the starting line up of the ADAC GT Masters 2019 there are some new faces.

00:43 – 00:52

Fabian Vettel (#48, Mann-Filter Team HTP)

"New series, new team, new car. Everything is a bit new for me. But right now I feel comfortable and 110% ready."

00:52 – 01:00

Carrie Schreiner (#8, HBC-Rutronik Racing)

"I'm very excited, of course. But I'm looking forward to the new challenge and I'm excited to see how it goes."

01:00 – 01:16

Everything is ready for a great new season that traditionally begins in the Motorsport Arena Oschersleben.

drive through penalty #63 Engelhart *

* Race leader Bortolotti had to change a damaged tyre, and partner Christian Engelhart (32, GER) was subsequently handed a drive-through penalty for a pit stop that was too short. The alleged infringement later turned out to be a timekeeping error. However, the penalty could not be withdrawn, as it had already been served by the time the mistake was discovered.
