- 00:18 The season finale at the Sachsenring! The title is at stake!
Ammermüller or Andlauer: Old hand or youngster! Decision day in the Porsche Carrera Cup Germany.

- 00:35 Julien Andlauer is usually upbeat, which is hardly surprising in the light of the overall standings. Lechner Racing's French driver is 27.5 points clear of his closest rival ahead of the final race weekend at the Sachsenring. He has the best chances of winning the title – many things have gone according to plan.
- 00:54 SOT Julien Andlauer EN
- 01:03 And that's what Porsche demand of the junior driver. He has their support but he must also perform.
- 01:15 SOT Julien Andlauer EN
- 01:21 He was far from doing that at the beginning of the season, when Huber Racing were dominant. Larry Ten Voorde won the first three races, Andlauer taking only 43.5 points until then.
- 01:33 SOT Julien Andlauer EN
- 01:46 Spielberg, Lechner's home race. Lechner had to gain momentum.
He battled it out with Larry Ten Voorde in the first race.
- 02:01 SOT Julien Andlauer EN
- 02:24 He got a grip. Ten Voorde's attack at the Norisring was too wild:
another 25 points for Andlauer. Ten Voorde finished second in the second race, as the tide slowly turned. After a stop at Zandvoort, the Carrera Cup visited the Nürburgring, and Andlauer reigned supreme in the Eifel!
- 02:42 SOT Julien Andlauer EN
- 02:46 Two races, two victories despite adverse conditions: the foundation for a successful last third of the season. The duel with his teammate began at Hockenheim. Michael Ammermüller became his closest rival. Andlauer took 45 points and retained the overall lead.

- 03:20 The Sachsenring – called the little Nordschleife. It's also the venue for the showdown in the amateur classification. Stefan Rehkopf tries to make the most of his last chance.
- 03:34 Carlos Rivas from Luxembourg is 1.5 points clear, amateur coach Christian Menzel giving him some last advice. Menzel won the Carrera Cup in 2005 and knows what has to be done:

It's full-on attack mode now. I told him to only care about Stefan and by no means fight with the others. It would be a shame if he had contact with a regular driver and failed to take points or scored a bad result.
- 04:08 The amateur drivers usually race at the back of the field, so they must be highly alert. The relationships between the gentlemen drivers are amicable.
- 04:25 Carlos Rivas introduces the track:

Most drivers used three sets of tyres. We saved one so I still have a new set. That'll surely help in the race. Will it help regarding the title? Well, it'll be tough. If Andlauer retains his position it won't be enough.
- 06:49 Andlauer will be starting from P3 in both races. His rival Ammermüller scored one pole and one second position, as did Larry ten Voorde.
- 06:58 SOT Larry ten Voorde (DE), Overdrive Racing by Huber
Pole today, P2 tomorrow: a good position for the Sachsenring, it's difficult to overtake here. I'm looking forward to it.

- 07:07 Grid Race 1 on Saturday penultimate race of the Porsche Carrera Cup Deutschland. At the end again Leon Köhler qualified in the top 5, but the car had the wrong weight plates
- 07:23 Ten Voorde on Pole for the fifth time this season. Ammermüller on P2, Andlauer starting from 3. Pereira on 4 three Lechner driver in the top 4
- 18:13 Start of the race, Ammermüller with a rocket start, overtakes Larry ten Voorde for P1. Better position on the inside line. Andlauer with a good start, out of trouble P4
- 08:27 Onboard Pereira, Evans and Walilko behind him, Andlauer as well
- 08:36 Onboard Walilko, Zimmermann coming close
- 08:47 Racetrack 3.67 Km lang. Nice track a lot of fun for the drivers, but not easy to drive
- 08:52 Kaibach in the gravel
- 08:55 Onboard Kaibach
- 09:00 Onboard Kolkman, gets in the gravel as well, Schöll follows
- 09:19 Arkin Aka, cannot continue, Safety Car has to come out
- 09:24 Onboard Rivas he loses control gets into the gravel what happened?
- 09:37 SOT Carlos Rivas (DE), Black Falcon Team Textar
I wanted to take the right turn and was dazzled by the sun, so I didn't see it immediately. When I did it was almost too late. I swerved so I didn't crash into the driver in front of me, it was pretty tight.
- 09:57 Safety Car leading the field, Ammermüller ten Voorde, Pereira, Andlauer Evans
- 10:05 Onboard Köhler taking a look at the Aka situation

- 10:25 Safety Car is back in the pitlane, drivers prepare for restart
- 10:36 Ammermüller in the lead, nothing really happens
- 10:50 Onboard Leon Köhler fighting back, overtaking compatriot Schöll
- 10:59 Kaibach vs amateur driver Donchev from Bulgaria
- 11:13 Onboard Köhler behind Rehkopf, again gaining one position
- 11:23 Ammermüller in the lead, Pereira coming closer, attacks ten Voorde. The beginning of a nice fight between the two drivers
- 11:53 Onboard Rivas behind Rehkopf. The amateur opponents fighting with each other
- 12:05 Rivas is faster but cannot overtake initially. Finally he overtakes Rehkopf easily. Rivas took some time during the week testing here at Sachsenring
- 12:20 Ammermüller in the lead, Pereira close to ten Voorde. The Dutch with a mistake gives Pereira the chance to overtake... Ten Voorde somehow manages to stay in front. Nice fair fight between them
- 12:50 Last turn, Ammermüller wins. Ten Voorde, Pereira following. Andlauer on 4!
- 13:05 Lechner Senior and team happy about the result
- 13:08 Onboard Rivas. He finishes on P21 best amateur increases the gap between him and Rehkopf
- 13:17 SOT Stefan Rehkopf (DE), Huber Racing
I think the track suits Carlos considerably better than it suits me. He's been incredibly strong here over the last few years, and he managed this year too.

- ATMO
- 14:34 Race two on Sunday. The final race of the Porsche Carrera Cup Deutschland. Who will be champion?
- 14:44 Rehkopf fighting for the amateur crown, but Rivas is in the better position. Starting from P21, Rehkopf from P23
- 15:02 Ammermüller on Pole, ten Voorde next to him on P2. Andlauer again on 3. When things stay as they are, Andlauer will be champion. He has to finish at least in fourth position to be champion
- 15:21 Start race two. This time ten Voorde takes advantage of his position, overtakes Ammermüller. Andlauer next to Walilko
- 15:40 Onboard Rehkopf Wagner in the gravel. Rivas still in front of Rehkopf
- 14:45 Ten Voorde in front followed by Ammermüller, Walilko attacks Andlauer for P3
- 15:51 Start replay. Ten Voorde passes Ammermüller easily
- 16:04 Ammermüller in 2nd, Andlauer in 4th means Andlauer is champion. Evans is behind Andlauer
- 16:11 Onboard Köhler who had to start from the end of the grid again, he overtakes Barr and Rehkopf. Barr also overtakes Rehkopf who does not take the risk
- 16:28 Ten Voorde in the lead, Walilko attacking Ammermüller
- 16:36 Onboard Rivas, Schöll overtakes him. Rivas also very cautious today, stays out of trouble

- 20:20 Van Lagen with a braking mistake, but still manages to stay in front of Andlauer
- 20:34 Onboard Rehkopf, Schöll overtakes
- 20:43 Pereira vs Skoog. Skoog in front, nice fight between the two drivers. Pereira wins, 6th in the end – 4th overall
- 21:03 Ammermüller close to ten Voorde, the gap is too big. One mistake from ten Voorde can make the difference
- 21:24 Onboard Rivas, Henkefend with a braking mistake at the end of start finish, Rivas stays cool, does not attack
- 21:35 Last lap, Ammermüller as close as he can get. Ten Voorde wins
- 22:03 Huber Racing happy
- 22:09 Andlauer is still 9th and champion! Lechner happy. Ammermüller not really
- 22:30 SOT Michael Ammermüller (DE)
It's a shame, I had a chance but unfortunately I couldn't overtake. We didn't lose out on the title because of today, I've had so much bad luck over the whole season. I could have taken more points in the first few races. I would have easily won the title if it hadn't been for things beyond my control.

Project manager Porsche Carrera Cup Germany
The Carrera Cup Germany is about creating champions, and we've created a few strong champions, and some more are to follow. We have a championship that's only decided in the last race, that's hard to match, it shows the high level. We have a rookie champion, he'll definitely cause a stir in the next few years, and we have our first Esports champion. We've created a number of strong, new champions, I'm glad.
