00:00 Opener Porsche Carrera Cup

00:19 The 2020 Porsche Carrera Cup season turns onto the home straight: the drivers battle it out for points and silverware in two more races in Germany's fastest one-make cup. Three titles are up for grabs. Which team was fastest this year, who will be crowned best rookie - and who will come out on top in the overall standings? The answer: coming up!

00:49 These two are battling it out for the championship: Larry ten Voorde and Dylan Pereira. The latter won five of the six races at the Red Bull Ring and the Sachsenring midway through the season, but ten Voorde has made it to the podium in each of the nine races so far this term.

01:06 SOT Larry Ten Voorde (DE), Nebulus Racing by Huber
Of course it's a big achievement to win a championship like this. We won the Supercup, and now we'll try to win a second one. A double is something special.

01:18 SOT Dylan Pereira (DE), FÖRCH Racing
It helps you in your future. If you already have a title under your belt, it shows you can compete for a championship and ultimately win it.

01:30 The two have eight out of nine possible wins between them and have decisively shaped the season. #25 ten Voorde and #2 Pereira fight hard. They push one another to their limits, millimetres separating them on track.

01:50 SOT Larry Ten Voorde (DE), Nebulus Racing by Huber
The Carrera Cup is a contact sport, everybody knows that.

01:53 But both had to cope with setbacks, as Pereira did at the Lausitzring, where the 23-year-old lost the lead in the overall standings.

01:59 SOT Dylan Pereira (DE), FÖRCH Racing
It wasn't my weekend.

02:01 But they dominated the race weekends, and now the stage is set for the showdown between ten Voorde on 191 points and Pereira on 182 points.

- 02:16                    SOT Dylan Pereira (DE), FÖRCH Racing
Nine points short now, which means I just have to win twice to turn it around.
- 02:23                    Time for the final.
- 02:25                    SOT Larry Ten Voorde (DE), Nebulus Racing by Huber
That's what makes this sport awesome!
- 02:26                    The championship will be decided at Oschersleben. What are their rivals thinking?
- 02:32                    SOT Leon Köhler (DE), T3-HRT-Motorsport
The way things stand at the moment, I'd say Larry.
- 02:35                    SOT Diego Bertonelli (ENG), FACH AUTO TECH
- 02:40                    SOT Laurin Heinrich (DE), T3-HRT-Motorsport
If I'm honest I think Larry will win the championship. He's just a bit more consistent, which is crucial in such a short season. Every point counts.
- 02:48                    SOT Julian Hanes (DE), FÖRCH Racing
I'd wish Dylan the title from the bottom of my heart because he works so hard and does a really good job.
- 02:55                    The final qualifying: a first benchmark, and crucial at Oschersleben in particular as the 3.7-kilometre track in Saxony-Anhalt offers few overtaking opportunities. The drivers aim to complete two perfect laps. The fastest lap will be relevant for Race 1 on Saturday, the second-fastest lap will determine the starting grid for Race 2 on Sunday.
- 03:21                    Ten Voorde is deemed the better driver when it comes to qualifying. He has sealed five poles so far this season and set the fastest lap time at first, but it wasn't his best qualifying. P3 for Race 1 and P2 for Race 2 in the season finale: a tough task.
- 03:38                    Pereira, who has only sealed one pole so far, was in top form and will be starting in front of ten Voorde in both races. The pursuer is in an ideal position to topple his rival from his perch over the last few metres this season.

- 03:55                    SOT Dylan Pereira (DE), FÖRCH Racing
I set a really good lap time on my second set of tyres. Unfortunately it wasn't quite enough for pole but it was very tight. But the main thing is I'm ahead of Larry.
- 04:06                    SOT Larry Ten Voorde (DE), Nebulus Racing by Huber
The car felt completely different than yesterday, I really struggled. You could still see it when I was on my second and third set. The car was harder and harder to drive. It was the maximum for me today. We'll have to see why. I have no idea.
- 04:28                    Another driver proved a cool customer and raced into the limelight. Laurin Heinrich was on a roll, sealing pole for Race 1, 23 thousandths ahead of Pereira and 1.5 tenths ahead of ten Voorde. The T3/HRT rookie's speed was impressive.
- 04:46                    SOT Laurin Heinrich (DE), T3-HRT-Motorsport
My third pole in the Carrera Cup Germany, I'm very happy about it. To be on pole is very exciting, especially as a rookie. I'm glad I could turn in such a good performance at the end of the season.
- 04:57                    The 19-year-old introduces the Motorsport Arena Oschersleben from a driver's perspective.

- 09:30 SOT Laurin Heinrich (DE), T3-HRT-Motorsport
There was coolant in the turn before that. I didn't see any traces in the turn where I spun off, and I'm sure there weren't any. So I don't really know why I skidded, I'll have to analyse it. It's a shame with regard to the rookie championship of course. But I'm still in the race, and the guys are going full throttle so I can race again tomorrow.

I wanted to go down the inside at the entry to Turn 2 but my rear broke away and I slightly touched him. He spun and hit me, something at my right rear was broken and touched my tyre so there was some smoke. I had to stop the car.
- 11:01                    SOT Alexander Fach (DE), Overdrive Racing by Huber

Joey Mawson on P4 (Australia/Fach Auto Tech) achieved his best result so far this season.
- 13:55                    In the team classification, Förch Racing (313 points) fights for honours against Nebulus Racing by Huber (275 points).

- 14:02                    SOT Dylan Pereira (DE), FÖRCH Racing
Larry was really fast midway through the race. But towards the end I was a little faster thanks to my tyre pressure, I managed my tyres better and opened up a gap again. Everything's up for grabs tomorrow.
- 14:14                    SOT Larry Ten Voorde (DE), Nebulus Racing by Huber
I was able to attack quite well in today's race despite older tyres and a broken front lip. It was my own fault, I'd seen a gap and tried to take it. Everyone will have the same tyres at their disposal tomorrow. I'm already looking forward to it. The car is definitely good.
- 14:31                    Pereira makes the podium for the eighth time this season, two times fewer than ten Voorde, who's been in the top three every time in 2020.
- 14:42                    The final race is also the title decider: Dylan Pereira versus Larry Ten Voorde. The Dutchman is a mere four points ahead. It means the winner of the last race will be crowned champion. The Carrera Cup showdown could not be more tense and exciting.

- 21:44                    SOT Julian Hanses (DE), FÖRCH Racing
I'm very satisfied. The team did a superb job. I've improved a whole lot from the first race to this point, and that's what it's all about. I always say, may the best driver win, and he was better in the race, he did a better job.
- 21:58                    SOT Laurin Heinrich (DE), T3-HRT-Motorsport
Julian braked very late in Turn 1. I saw it, so I eased off the throttle and focused on the exit to the turn. I was beside him at the bottom of the turn, and I knew it would work out.

It feels superb. I was extremely tense and nervous during the race of course. To be honest, I left and didn't watch it. I haven't quite taken it in yet.
- 23:54                    Dylan Pereira has to content himself with the unwanted second place whereas Ten Voorde and his team can pop the champagne.

- 24:09                    SOT Larry Ten Voorde (DE), Nebulus Racing by Huber
I'm lost for words. I had to win and did just that. I gave it everything. The start was very good, and the manoeuvre was one of the best and most important ones in my career. But I'd also like to thank Dylan.
- 24:25                    SOT Dylan Pereira (DE), FÖRCH Racing
I think Larry and I are quite similar. We both race close to perfection, sometimes one of us is a tenth faster or slower than the other, so the slightest mistakes in terms of setup or even mentally make the difference. And this year Larry did a better job in the Carrera Cup and the Supercup.
- 24:55                    After the title in the international Porsche Mobil 1 Supercup at the beginning of September, ten Voorde added more silverware to his trophy collection in his fourth year in the Carrera Cup. Congratulations!
- 25:12                    There were decisions in two other classes: Laurin Heinrich won the rookie championship in his first Carrera Cup year, and Förch Racing took the team championship.
