00:24

An autograph session in the paddock.

00:26

"It's just fun to talk to people a little, hearing why they're here and stuff."

00:32

Fans again at last!

00:43

"It's also time again to experience the fans up close and vice versa. It's great!"

00:48

It's the Porsche Carrera Cup at the Sachsenring and HE is celebrating his birthday here. Larry ten Voorde turns 25 today. He gets a Porsche to eat and 2nd place on the grid in the first race.

01:00

In front of him Ayhancan Güven, behind him Laurin Heinrich.

At the start to race - the 13th of the season - it was clear it was going to be a tough one.

01:10

In fact, it started out with a little tussle in the first right-hand bend with the leaders: Laurin Heinrich and Loek Hartog. Up front, Larry ten Voorde is fighting for the lead and is close behind Ayhancan Güven.

01:26

And... is able to pass him here.

The exchange of positions at the front now makes Larry ten Voorde the leader of the field from now on.

01:33

The Porsche Carrera Cup at the Sachsenring, where it all goes COUNTER-clockwise and for some also against the direction of travel.

01:43

Carlos Rivas takes a little spin. In the end, Kim Hauschild becomes best ProAm with Jan Eric Slooten second in this class.

01:55

It's another victory for the Dutchman in Saturday's race at the Sachsenring, the seventh already for him this year.

Larry ten Voorde is out front with Ayhan Güven and Julian Hanes close on his tail.

02:08 Larry ten Voorde - Team GP Elite

"This was a very nice birthday present, but I also had to work hard for it and did. I'm very happy with the result."

02:17

It was also the first podium for Julian Hanes in the Porsche Carrera Cup.

02:20 Julian Hanes - HRT Performance.

"A dream come true! I worked hard for a-year-and-a-half towards this goal. Now, it has finally happened. I'm so happy, it's unbelievable."

02:29

Congratulations!! Now off to Sunday's race.

Here, the fans once again experience really thrilling motorsport and brilliant sound, which the 26 Porsche 911 GT3 Cup cars put on show.

02:46

Things are getting a bit too tight at the back of the field. There's position battles, lots of pushing and shoving. Once again, it's Laurin Heinrich who ends up in the gravel.

02:56

There are three races to go in the current Porsche Carrera Cup season.

Who will become the driver's champion? Who will take this year's title?

03:11

In any case, that will NOT be decided prematurely at the Sachsenring.

In this race Ayhan Güven claims victory, after a long-fought duel with Christopher Zöchling for first place. Leon Köhler initially finishes third, but later has to relinquish this position because he was involved in a collision and received a time penalty for it.

Larry ten Voorde is awarded third place later.

03:20

Another exciting race, particularly for a driver who could claim his third podium of the season.

03:50 Christopher Zöchling

"I'm happy with second place, it was a good race. I was under some pressure with Leon and Larry behind me. Overall I had a nice race."

04:00

Since Larry ten Voorde moved into third place due to Leon Köhler's penalty, his team was able to triumph in the championship early after all. The victory in the 'team classification' goes to Team GP Elite.

The remaining decisions will be made at the exciting finale, coming soon... in Hockenheim!
